THERE'S SOMETHING A BIT SPECIAL
ABOUT A DONNELLY WEDDING

WELCOME TO DONNELLY, a heritage listed 1950's mill town nestled deep in the heart of Western Australia's South West Karri forests. It has been a favourite holiday spot for families and groups since the mill closed in the 1970's and is now a destination of choice for couples looking for a special place to create their perfect wedding.

Back when the Mill was running, there were plans to build a church for the town, but the community enjoyed the services in the open air so much they decided not to build it. Today, happy couples are carrying on the tradition and staging their ceremonies under the majestic Karri trees. Having their families and friends staying at Donnelly for the weekend makes for a very different and memorable wedding experience.

A SCENIC, THREE HOUR DRIVE FROM PERTH, Donnelly River Village has its own swimming dam and an awesome 50m flying fox that is a favourite with the kids and the grown-ups. The original General Store is open every day for coffee, cake and other snacks.
